

United African American Ministerial Action Council

UAAMAC CLERGY/COMMUNITY LEADERS EDUCATIONAL BREAKFAST

THE HONORABLE SHELIA JACKSON
PRESIDENT, SAN DIEGO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

“TOWARDS AN EQUITABLE EDUCATION FOR OUR CHILDREN: HAVING A VISION, PROVIDING LEADERSHIP, DEVELOPING THE PLAN”

WHEN: TUESDAY, October 20, 2009, 8:00 am

WHERE: UAAMAC OFFICES
4981 MARKET STREET
San Diego, CA 92102

WHY: One in four students are dropping out of school indicating that 72% of our young people are more likely to be unemployed

We need to develop dual curricula that emphasizes the acquisition of skilled trades while respecting those who want to attend college

We need to develop an inclusive culture-respecting curricula that promotes a mastery of knowledge, critical thinking and social responsibility

Because children of color living in Southeastern San Diego, City Heights, Barrio Logan and other low income-areas need to receive an equitable, quality education

WHO: ALL OF THOSE WHO LOVE OUR CHILDREN AND WHO CARE ENOUGH TO ACT!!!!

PLEASE JOIN US FOR BREAKFAST (Donation $10.00)

Please RSVP with Jordanna Kidd (619) 264-1213. e-mail: jkidd@uaamac.com Our seating capacity is limited to the first 50 respondees.

The United African American Ministerial Action Council (UAAMAC) is committed to the construction of a Beloved Community of justice, equitable access to opportunities in the pursuit of happiness, education, health, peace and prosperity for all people. To this endeavor, we invite the participation of all people of good will and their resources to work collectively in making The Beloved Community a reality in the 21st Century.
